

Terms and Conditions

Price Protection

Visa cardholders can benefit from this Price Protection Program which helps you get the best price you can find on most products you buy with your eligible card with this benefit.

Visa is not an insurance company. The services and the insurance coverage are provided to the cardholders by AIG, through their insurance companies or associated companies in the country. The descriptions of these benefits are not insurance policies. The insurance is subject to the general terms and conditions, limitations and exclusions of the policy purchased by Visa, and all cards are subject to changes or cancellation of the general terms and conditions of this insurance.

Simply pay for the entire cost of the product with your eligible card and if, within 30 days of the date you purchased the product, you see either a Printed Advertisement or Non-Auction Internet Advertisement for the same product (same model number and same model year) by the same manufacturer, in the same market*, we will refund the difference up to the benefit amount per item (and per account per 12 month period). The price difference must be above USD 25 for this coverage to apply.

*Same market is defined as same country and within 100 kilometers of point of purchase. For the U.S., it will mean the 48 contiguous states. Alaska, Hawaii and other U.S. territories will be treated separately.

Printed Advertisement is defined as advertisements appearing in a newspaper, magazine, store circular, or catalog which state the authorized dealer or store name, item (including make, model number), and sales price. The advertisement must be for the identical item (same make, model number and same model year).

A no-auction internet advertisement is an advertisement posted on the internet, by a non-auction merchant with a valid tax identification number. The advertisement must be for the identical item (same make, model number and same model year). The printed version of the Internet advertisement must include the merchant's internet address and customer service telephone number, as well as the item including model number, sales price and date of publication.
